

BRIEFLY

Selected for award

BERHAMPUR: Youth for Social Development (YSD), a social organisation of the city, was selected for the regional award for eastern region by the Resource Alliance and the Rockefeller Foundation for the year 2010. Organisations have been evaluated on their effective and sustainable mobilisation of resources, good governance practices, transparency, accountability and the impact of the work in bringing about tangible benefits to its targeted communities.